

Imagining the Possibilities

We not only inherit the American Dream,
we also envision it. Symbols are the language of dreams, so here our children share with us their ImagiNation.

This artwork was created by students from Treasure Village Montessori Public Charter School and first displayed at the Keys to Peace Festival in the Village of Islamorada, Florida on June 14, 2008 during the early efforts to found the National Peace Academy.

This exhibit is presented by GreatSeal.net
and funded by friends of the Student Peace Alliance.
(Panel designed by DeClues' Art Printing & Framing Inc.)

This panel is not part of the original exhibition created by the United States Diplomacy Center, U.S. Department of State. The Student Peace Alliance and GreatSeal.net are not affiliated with, nor are their statements and materials intended to represent the views or policies of the U. S. Department of State.